

DENEB INVESTMENTS LIMITED
(Registration Number: 2013/091290/06)

INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No 2 of 2000 (PAIA) came into effect on 9 March 2001. The purpose of PAIA is to (1) foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies by giving effect to the right of access to information and to (2) promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect all of their rights more fully.

This manual has been prepared and published in accordance with the requirements of section 51 of the PAIA and takes into consideration the requirements of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (POPIA). The purpose of POPIA is to respect the constitutional right to privacy, ensuring that personal information is lawfully processed, and when processed by a responsible person, is adequately safeguarded. POPIA further provides rights and remedies to protect personal information from processing not in accordance with the Act.

ACCESS REQUESTS. PAIA 51 (1)(b)(iv).

To facilitate the processing of your request, kindly:

- Use the prescribed form attached to this manual as PAIA Form 2 (Schedule 1).
- Address your request to the Information Officer
- Provide sufficient details as to enable Deneb to identify:
 - The records requested
 - The requestor (and if an agent is lodging the request, proof of capacity)
 - The form of access required
 - The postal address or fax number of the requester in the Republic
 - If the requestor wishes to be informed of the decision in any manner (in addition to written) the manner and particulars thereof
 - The right which the requestor is seeking to exercise or protect with an explanation of the reason the record is required to exercise or protect the right.

The following applies to requests, other than personal requests:

- A requestor is required to pay the prescribed fees before a request will be processed.
- If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours, a deposit shall be paid of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted.
- A requestor may lodge an application with a court against the tender / payment of the request fee and / or deposit.
- Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.

Requests complying with the requirements set out above, will be processed and considered expeditiously. If the request for access is refused, Deneb will advise the requestor about the reasons for refusal of access and may, in the absence of an internal appeal process, advise the requestor to lodge an application with the court against the refusal of the request.

Requests for information may be refused on the following grounds:

- Protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person
- Protection of commercial information of a third party

- Protection of certain confidential information of a third party
- Protection of safety of individuals and protection of property
- Protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings
- Commercial information of the private body
- Protection of research information of a third party and of the private body.

Deneb will give the requestor a written notice of the decision within 30 days after a decision is made on their request to access information. In case of a request being refused, the notification will include the reasons for the refusal.

Deneb may extend the 30 days' notice period for a further period not exceeding 30 days after receiving the request, due to the nature of the request and the amount of time required to gather the requested information. The requestor will be notified of the extension prior to the expiry of the 30-day notice period.

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION THAT IS PROCESSED BY DENEb

Deneb requires personal information relating to both individual and juristic persons in order to carry out its business and operational functions. Deneb determines the purpose of and means for processing personal information, and as such, is considered a responsible party.
